DISASTER . . .

"We've only been here two weeks and look what happened!" cries Carol Brunner and Jill Fairbourn.

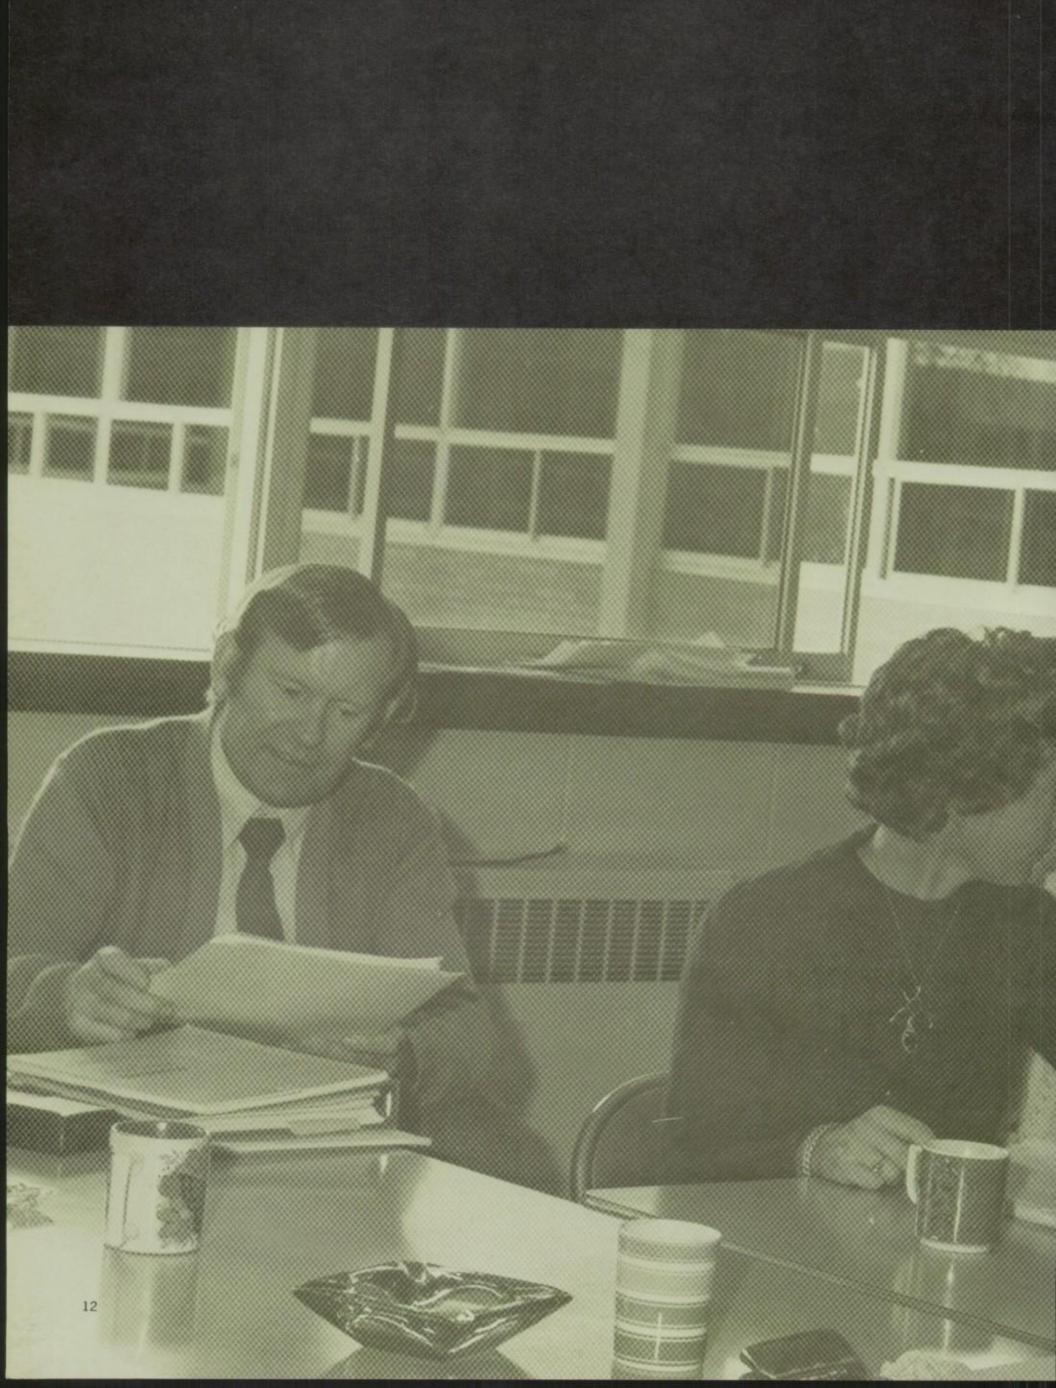

The fire meant overtime work for our Janitors!

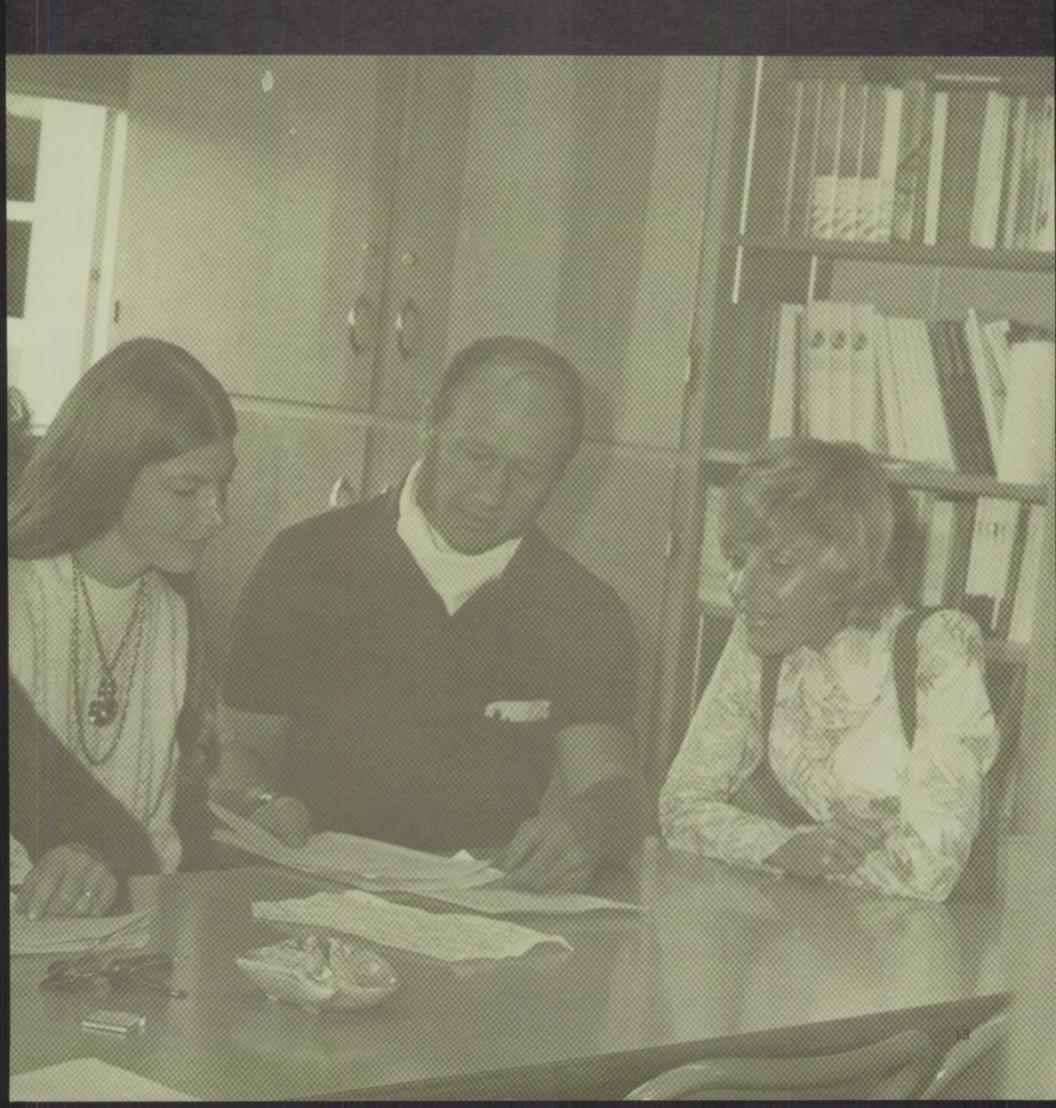

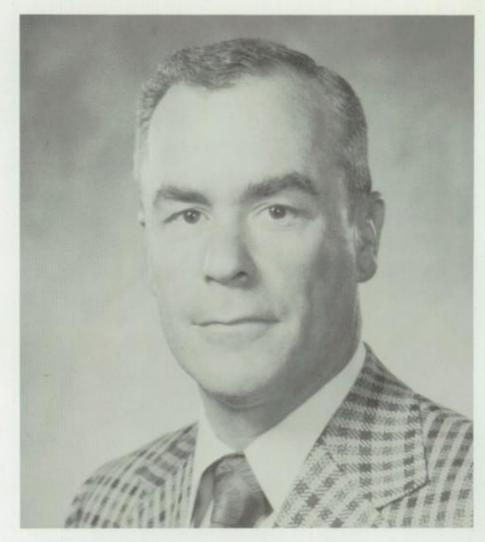

Monday, September 22, 1975.
Fire was reported at Capital High School. It was located in the critical area of the business office, destroying all financial records. The bookroom and darkroom were also damaged. Total damage was estimated at over $100,000.00. The result was a temporary darkroom in the Pep Club office, a new Pep Club office, and a new finance office. School was dismissed for three days. Further investigation revealed an attempted fire in the auditorium. The fire was found to be arson caused.

CLASSES

The Class of 1976 is an active one, with involvement and contributions in every phase of school activity. Some activities that, hopefully, the school knew nothing about.

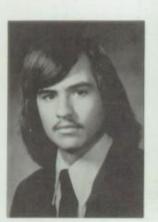

Seriously, though, this year's seniors were a fun-loving, easy-going class. Although we must now go our separate ways, we have acquired friendships and memories that will never leave us.

I believe I speak for the whole class in wishing the Junior and Sophomore classes the kind of worthwhile, enjoyable Senior year that we have had.

The outstanding freshman classes from Fairmont and Hillside Junior High Schools have combined to form perhaps the most talented class ever to walk the halls of Capital High School.

The accomplishments of the Sophomores in 1975-76 are many. They have done much to continue and enrich Capital's excellent reputation in sports, drama, speech, debate, music, art, and all academic achievements.

As Sophomores continue to contribute to Capital's reputation of excellence during their Junior and Senior years, they will be proud to be members of the graduating class of 78.

As the 1975 season unfolded, Capital was undefeated and the defending State Champs. However, in preseason polls, Capital was expected to finish no higher than 5th or 6th. Not only did the 1975 Eagles meet the expectations, but they actually challenged for the championship in their concluding game of the season.

The progress in football from that of an awed, enthusiastic sophomore to that of a mature, dedicated senior is a complicated one. As players and coaches, we can appreciate that the game of football has much more depth to it than the superficial glitter which is all the public sees. The important thing about playing football is not only the scores, but the effort, the loyalities, the successes, the failures, the disciplines, the friendships and the maturing of all people related to the game.

Traditions are built on excellence and excellence is the natural by-product of taking a good product and exerting time and effort in its development. Our staff does not have to be convinced that some of the finest individuals at Capital are members of the 1975 football team.

Football is a game a great deal like life, in that a man's personal commitment be toward success. Each week there is a new challenge, but the spirit, the will to win, and the will to excell are the things that endure. These are the qualities which are so much more important than any of the events which occasion them. These are the qualities that abound among members of the 1975 Capital Eagles. For myself, it has been a privilege and an honor to coach and to associate with these young men.

This season was an enjoyable season for the coaching staff, Steve Vogal, Ron Thompson, and myself.

This year's sophomore football team got started on the wrong foot losing to Twin Falls 30-27, and Meridian 24-12. The Twin Falls game was a comedy of turnovers with Capital losing 6 fumbles while averaging 258 yards more than Twin. The Meridian games saw our sophomores beat by a good team. Capital was without 7 starters and the loss the week before made it tough. Capital beat Borah by a score of 25-14, and got Capital rolling towards their fine season. Capital beat Boise 21-0, Nampa 28-8. The last win was extremely gratifying because Capital finally put a total game together with a devastating hard hitting defense and an offense that scored when it had to. Borah was hard hitting which made the game a field of injuries. This is one of the hardest hitting games played this year.

The 1975 Sophomores will be ready for the next two years as Juniors and Seniors and will help Capital's Varsity on to the State Championship.

COACH'S COMMENTS

We started out this year full of high hopes after placing third in the state in 1974. Since only one runner had graduated, everyone was sure we could improve.

Our chances for success were based on Seniors Charlie Wittner, Terry Funk, Doug Campbell, Rich Waddel, and Juniors Greg Funk, Mark Tracy, and Brian Bechtel. We won the first 4 meets of the year very easily, as Charlie proved himself to be the class of the state at 3 miles. First year runner Rich Waddell was looking super and so were the Funk brothers.

Then disaster struck us!

Charlie broke his foot from running so much and Terry Funk tore his knee up and had to have surgery. What looked like a super year was rapidly turning into a nightmare.

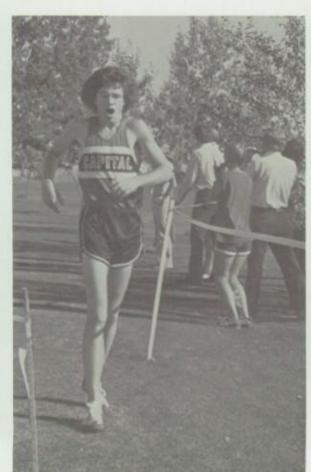

The rest of the team rallied to run tough at District, but barely failed to qualify for state. Greg Funk carried the Capital colors to the State meet and did a super job to place 15th.

This season taught us to take the meets one at a time and be thankful for our success.

Thank you Rich, Charlie, Doug, and Terry for your years of dedication.

I believe that my soul is too grand to be crushed by defeat; I will rise above it. I will not yield to discouragements, I will trample them under foot and make them serve as stepping stones to success. I will conquer my obstacles and turn them into opportunities. My failures of today will help to guide me on to victory on the morrow.

The morrow will bring new strength, new hopes, new opportunities and new beginnings. I will be ready to meet it with a brave heart, a calm mind, and an undaunted spirit. We will face the world bravely, we will not be cowards, we will accept our Godgiven birthright to be men. For we will be invincable and nothing will overcome us.

THE SEASON

The 1975-76 edition of Eagle Wrestling began in November with little experience, few skills, and a long road ahead. A team dominated by the presence of unexperienced Sophomores and Juniors and crippled by the absence of Seniors, the young Eagles began to build an idea, a hope, a dream, a conquest. Each day the enthusiasm and dedication grew; first slowly and then faster and faster like a rolling snowball. Hard work became the symbol of each day. From the day to day hustle and dedication of the young Eagles, an attitude emerged. An attitude of dedication to the building of a solid competitive wrestling program of Capital High School.

For me personally, 1975-76 will be classified as a disappointing season: dual record 6-4, best tournament finish 4th; only three wrestlers qualified for state-Skip Carter, District Champion; John DeVanaspre, 3rd in district; Randy Osler, 4th in district. However, from this disappointment both Coach Stevens and myself feel a new attitude has arisen. A new sense of dedication and confidence in one's abilities. As the hard work continues and our wrestlers increase their skill factors, the 1976-77 season will be a great one for the Eagle Wrestlers.

EAGLES WIN SECOND STRAIGHT DISTRICT AND STATE TITLES

The 1975-76 basketball season will be remembered as the year of "hustle, heart, and DEFENSE," The season was a 24 win, 2 loss year. Both losses, to Highland and Idaho Falls, were redeemed as wins during the state tournament.

At the start of the season Capital was picked as the fifth place team of our district and not regarded as one of the teams to be in the state tournament, nor considered as an SIC contender. However, with our first win over Mtn. Home through our last win over Highland, the Capital Eagles amazed the fans, opponents, and coaches.

The Eagles won their first fifteen games and established a well publicized forty-one game winning streak. The year ended with the Eagles defeating Meridian for the third time to win the Regional Championship. The following week Capital defeated Lewiston, Idaho Falls, and then Highland to Win the State Championship.

Bill Hessing, SIC player of the year, most valuable player, and First Team All State, was our point guard. Joe Huff and Brent Lind, the other senior guards epitomized our team with hustle and heart. Dennis McCracken filled in when Joe had a broken arm and did an outstanding job.

The forward positions were played by Second Team SIC, First Team All State sophomore sensation Brian Welch. Senior Steve Irons, Greg Bennett, and Eric Carter came off the bench and played important holes in numerous wins, with great desire, hustle, and attitude.

Dale Zimmerman started out at our low post position. Throughout the entire year he inspired many fans and teammates with his play.

Kipp Bedard, our high forward had an incredible season. His intense and concentrated play excited many people.

Dean Warr, Casey Zollinger, and Mike Maffey also played on both the Varsity and Junior Varsity teams.

Our managerial duties were handled very proficiently by Keith Gillette, Tim Boyle, and Brian Sheehy.

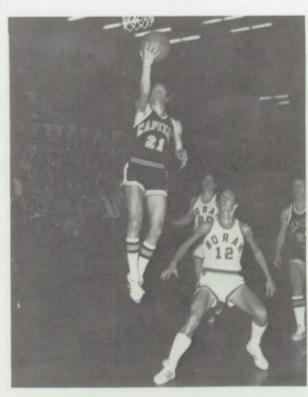

The success of our year was predicated on defense, and a "never give up attitude."

For me it was a priviledge to work with Nick Cuccia, our trainer; Ron Silva, Bob Peppley, and Larry Smith as assistant coaches; and Steve Schroeder, our statistician. It is a very dear honor to coach such an outstanding group of young men. Again thanks Capital Varsity Basektball Team of 1975-76.

Frederico took one and a half years of English before coming to the United States. He was the president of his class in Brazil. Here at Capital, he is taking American Government, History, Art, Speech, Typing and Spanish.

RIGHT: Sachiko Wada is from Kyoto, Japan. She is staying with the Mustards at 651 Robertson Drive. Before coming to the United States, she took six years of English; which included grammar, writing, and reading. Sachiko's classes at Capital are Typing, Jewelry, Pottery, Reading, and Drafting. Her favorite dish in America is the Mexican burrito. Sachiko enjoys leathercraft because she says in Japan they have little cattle industry. She is with the program, International Fellowship, Incorporated.

The varsity cheerleaders got off to good start this year. They placed first at the cheerleading camp they attended in July at Seattle, Washington. Aside from placing first they learned unique new cheers and presentations.

The sophomore cheerleaders did a great job supporting the sophomore teams, and helping the varsity cheerleaders at the varsity games.

A big thanks goes to all of the cheerleaders for giving up much of their free time to support Capital, and for encouraging student participation in the activities of the school.

The forty member Basketball Drill Team worked many long hours to get ready for their first game performance on January 30. Because of a busy schedule and a trip to Dallas, Texas, time was an important factor. They had two hour morning practices to get ready for competition and other performances.

New uniforms were received for competition in March.

They marched to such songs as the Theme of "SWAT" and "Applause" which provided the basis for great variety in their drill.

CAPITAL BANDS

The Capital Bands directed under Mr. Gary Green were very busy this year with many money projects. This money was earned for their trip to Dallas, Texas, for the Cotton Bowl Parade. Marching Band won first place and the 1975-76 Sweepstakes trophy in Band Competition.

COTTONBOWL DALLAS, TEXAS

"And we'll go singing, singing of fun. Bus #1 in the moon or the sun. We'll go singing, singing of fun, singing of our dear bus. "We'll remember that for A LONG TIME!!

ABOVE; Pam Perrin and Ronda Swanby give us an example of some of the finer talents of our Drill team Captains.

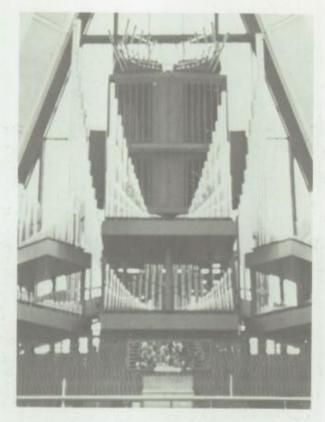

The 1975 Golden Eagle Marching Band and Drill Team was invited to participate in the Cotton Bowl Parade in Dallas, Texas.

The students were involved in several money making projects such as dinners, and the selling of magazines, candy, and calander and stationary items. After many months of hard work, the 150 students went over their goal of $35,000 by earning $40,000.

After driving straight through the first night the seven chartered buses made it to Dallas in three days.

Hitting a deer, a horse or getting hit by a car, it made no difference. Bus #2 still had a lot of fun. And at the end of each day, you could hear echoes of the . . . "who stole the cookie from the cookie jar . . . "

After eating breakfast in Denver, Colorado, we stopped for our first tour, the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs. It began with a special showing of "The Star of the East". About half-way through the show, everything went black because Colorado Springs took their electricity. We then ate lunch at the officers club. The highlight of the tour was the Chapel. They had Protestant, Catholic and Jewish sanctuarys in one building. Each one was quite beautiful. The Prostestant Chapel had a massive pipe organ with 4,334 pipes. From there we rolled into Trinadad, Colorado and had a welcomed nights rest.

ABOVE; The Devil in Barb Wesche made her buy a Big Devil Burger while shopping in Amarillo, Texas.

Poker and Pinochle were two of the favorite pastimes of Bus #3. There were plenty of jokes told and quite a bit of singing. The symbol was the eagle, and the favorite saying was, "When are we gonna eat". All in all we had a good time. After all, the thirds a charm.

After getting slightly lost in Dallas, we arrived safely at our Holiday Inn with a basket of fresh fruit waiting for us from Albertsons and Skaggs. The next morning, the band, flags and rifles had a 9:00 practice in the motel dining room. They then joined the drill team outside and had an exciting practice getting everyone jacked for the next day's performance. We then spent the afternoon shopping at one of the nation's largest shopping malls. That evening, we distributed hundreds of potatoe pins at a New Years Eve party held for all the bands participating in the Cotton Bowl Parade.

Mr. Green takes the oath enabling him to become a member of the Rifle Corp.

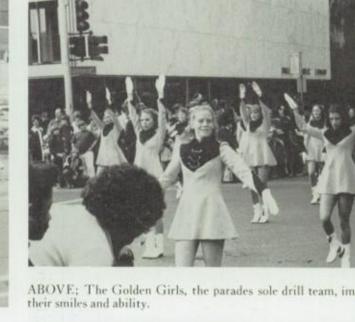

Rowdy was our theme even if it was only two people at 4:00 in the morning. Some of the most popular questions on board the bus was "Do you have any pennies" or "Where's our food". If you wanted to sleep, this bus was most definitely not the one to get on.

ABOVE; The Drummers keep a steady pace to keep the parade's largest unit ever in step.

ABOVE; The Capital High Rifles, Flags and Band march proudly down the streets of Dallas.

On Bus #5 sleep was hard to come by, but in spite of this there was no lack of spirit. In fact, some of the more spirited boys on the bus decided to dress up as girls. As on all the buses, playing cards and eating were the most popular things to do.

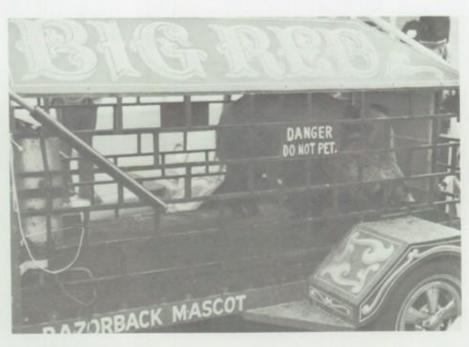

The big day began with our chaperones bringing all of us breakfast in bed. We all got ready and were transported to downtown Dallas. There we had some final practice, clown entertainment, along with plenty of words of encouragement. We stepped out to begin the parade. We marched proudly in front of what we thought would be millions of T.V. viewers. Very soon after we reached our buses, we were informed of the camera malfunction resulting in a loss of picture and grave disappointment. However, the parade in itself was very satisfying because the people on the streets were very warm and complimentary. The disappointment lies only in the fact that all our supporters had no real satisfaction for all they did.

After the parade we went to the Cotton Bowl Game. It was a time for some to get in their weekend football, others to get some sleep, and others just have plain fun. (PIG SOOIE!!)

If a person likes to request songs and then hear them sung, Bus #6 would have been the ideal bus, providing they were tone deaf. Eating was also a favorite pastime and of course playing cards and an occasional game of yatzee.

The last evening in Dallas was a special one because of a Texas style Bar-B-Q. Upon entering, everyone received red bandanas and a plateful of the best food we'd had the entire trip. The food was prepared by a former cook of Lyndon Johnson who said he didn't want us leaving Texas with a bad taste in our mouth. After everyone had had their fill of food and dancing, we headed out of Dallas. Before arriving at Carlsbad the next morning, we had hit a deer and gotten a flat tire. The tour of Carlsbad Caverns was absolutely fascinating. Each turn revealed a new and unbelievable structure of stone. The transmitters each of us received at the beginning of the tour, explained the story behind this fantastic work of nature. From there we went on to Albuquerque by way of the colorful painted desert. After removing the mouse "gauano" from the beds and "losing" a sousaphone the next morning, we were on our way to the Grand Canyon. The Yavapae Lodge where we stayed was one of the nicest of the entire trip. The next morning we saw the magnificent Canyon. Everyone was awed by the massive size and beauty of this great wonder of the world. After doing some shopping at the gift shops, we drove all day arriving at Lake Powell to eat a slow dinner. Upon entering Idaho we drove through the first and only bad weather of the trip, and arrived safe at home Monday, January 5th. The trip was entirely satisfying for most everyone involved, and was an experience that was both learning and fun filled. It will be an experience never forgotten by each one involved.

It looked like things might be rather quiet on Bus #7. But as soon as our bus driver, Jerry Vevig, lead us in a rousing chorus of "Why Doesn't My Goose Lay as Much as Thy Goose" the bus became much rowdier! We all felt Bus #7 was best, but everyone knows you save the best till last".

The past year was a busy one for the Capital Singers. The group performed approximately 80 times throughout the year, starting with a performance in McCall on September 12. The majority of performances took place in Boise, including ones for United Fund and the Lincoln Day Banquet. During the last part of the year, much time was spent on the road. On March 5, the group travelled to Moscow for the first of many jazz contests. The biggest trip took place during Spring break when Capital Singers went to California. While there, they participated in the National Orange Show in San Bernadino and performed at Disneyland and the Norton Air Base. Also in March, the group went to Reno to participate in another jazz festival. The final trip of the year was in May to the Mount Hood Jazz Festival in Gresham, Oregon.

THESPIANS

This year the Drama competitors had their best year ever. In the competitions held this year Capital competitors received 43 superiors and two exellents with no lower marks. These included; District III Drama Competition 15 competitors, 15 superior ratings; Region II competition 15 competitors, 13 superior, two excellent ratings; State Competition 13 competitors, 13 superiors. Capitals Drama Department also took first place in the state thanks to many devoted dramatists.

Downend, Sue Moreland, Lee Hendricks, E. Onweiler, G. Goffin, K. Knight, K. McAllister, L. Fowler, K. O'Neill, S. Filler.

The first We O' Man production was Cyrano de Bergerac. Set in 1620, the play was a true romantic production concerning the many problems of Cyrano and his only love Roxane. Another production, "A Game" received a superior rating in District, Regional and State competitions. Some of the other productions of the year include "No Time For Heaven", "The Steadfast Tin Soldier" and "Fables".

Cast of "A Game"; Bill Williams, Teri Netz, Kathy O'Neil, Lance LaShelle, all think "That's Deep."

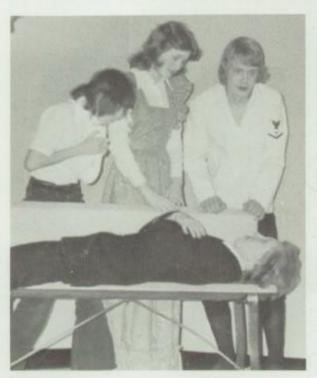

"Arrest this man," (Bryan Diffendaffer) "He accosted me." says Michelle Guyot to Robert Brock, of the Melodrama, "The Perloined Pearls."

The Drama classes have produced six melodramas throughout the year. 'Shoutout At Hole-in-the-wall,' 'The Perloined Pearls' 'Run To The Roundhouse Nellie', 'He Lured Her To The Primrose Path' 'Monster Soup' and 'Alaska (There's Gold In Them Thar Hills!)'

R.O.T.C.

The Reserve Officers Training Corps trains high school students in military skills such as weapons, first aid, history, and drill. The fancy drill teams compete in regional competitions. The varsity rifle team competes in city and state competitions. The program gives cadets a better opportunity in the armed services by increasing benefits and pay upon enlistment.

O.K! B.O!

This years Talon Staff was comprised largely of new, inexperienced members which ended up working to our advantage. Their fresh ideas greatly contributed to the creativity of the book. They worked hard to meet deadlines on time, take and print an endless number of pictures, and be sure every page captured the spirit of student life We trust this book will help make the memories of the 1975-76 school year long lasting.

Despite this year's small staff size, we enthusiastically tackled the job and produced five issues first semester.

Editor-in-Chief Debbie Maulin piloted the bicentennial volume of THE FLIGHT.

She was ably assisted by the man with a nose for news, Pete Smith. Camille Jagger, feature editor searched out stories of human interest. Sports Editor, Skip Carter, aided by Chris Williams, handled the active Eagle sports. Laird Maxwell, advertising manager, turning over his post at the semester to Mike Echanove, remained on staff as a reporter. Keith Gillette, did an outstanding job of keeping the books. Vicki Saw yer filled in as reporter. Photo deadlines were met with Dan Hill clicking the shutter. The ten member staff was joined at the semester by seven able reporters. Advisor and head shrink Gloria Salladay kept the flighty staffers on their perch, casting a calming spell on the harassed

The Pep Club was greatly strengthened this year by a large group of outstanding new members. The girls decorated Capital's halls, sold balloons and pom-poms, provided treats for teams and sponsored a successful Christmas Formal. They also put on a spirit Booster Party to open the basketball season. The advisors this year were Mrs. Peggy Jones and Mrs. Beth Coonts. The spirit generated by this group is greatly felt and appreciated.

CAMBRIDGE SOCIETY

The Cambridge Society membership comprises top students from the student body of Capital High School. As a group they tried to lead direction for many school activities. Last year, the Society assisted in the Amtrack survey for the governor of Idaho. This year they took part in a group which compiled data in support of coordinated transit system for the city of Boise. All activities of the Society are directed toward expansion of their academic capabilities and acquire a more viable awareness of their role in the society in which they live.

This year's Homecoming week was one of the best ever. Everyone was very involved in the numerous fun activities. The dress up days, door decorating, choir's car stereo drawing and tricycle race were only a few of the great activities of the week. The watermelon feed, bonfire, and the carnival were also some of the highlights of the week. The pep assembly helped get everyone jacked for the big game with skits and cheers lead by our spirited cheerleaders.

Who knows how many times we've wondered if it is all worth it. All the hours of work, cropping, proportioning, hurrying to meet deadlines, and frantically printing last minute pictures. Hopefully, these pages can be a lasting proof that all was not in vain. We hope that the pictures and words can recreate the excitement, happiness, and hardship that was felt throughout the year.

A special thanks goes to the faculty for their patience and understanding. They often excused staff members to do last minute work to finish deadlines. Also our fellow staff workers deserve thanks for their work and patience. Finally, we can not say enough to thank Mr. Stanley Tromburg for all his work, guidance, advise and ceaseless patience.

Sincerely, Co-Editors Becky Odelland Brad Smith

We the last of all,
are the first of all.
The oldest is always the newest.
I see nothing which I have seen before.
Got to move on.
